MICHAEL TOMLINSON YOUR LOCAL CHOICE

■ May I introduce myself? My name is Michael Tomlinson and I am privileged to have been selected as your Conservative Prospective Parliamentary Candidate.

I have lived in this constituency for the past ten years. As you might expect, being married with three young children, my concerns locally include our schools, health care and housing.

On a national level our country is at a pivotal moment. Important decisions have to be made which will affect both our local area and the country as a whole. I am asking for your help. I want you to tell me what issues are important to you. What are your concerns and aspirations for Dorset and for the United Kingdom?

Please have a look at the survey overleaf and let me know what you think

If you think that I have not asked the right questions, then please use the space in question 7 and tell me the questions that I should be asking! I can assure you that all of your replies will be studied and taken note of by the team and myself in the Constituency office.

Michael Tomlinson

Yours very sincerely,

MICHAEL'S POLITICS

■ I am often asked why on earth I am going into politics. Here's why.

I want to make a difference. In my current job, I am proud that I am given the chance to help individuals and small businesses. As your MP, I will be able to continue to do so, but I will also have the opportunity to shape our area, to improve Dorset for our families and children, and to affect the way our country is run.

MICHAEL'S PRIORITIES

■ My number one priority is to serve you to the best of my ability.

I want to use my skills to encourage growth, jobs and the development of our local businesses.

I believe that we should cut bureaucracy and our target culture.

I will work closely with my local council colleagues to protect and improve our quality of life.
